Choosing Joy in Christ by Avoiding Sinful Bitterness

We all face bitter conditions at times. Naomi lost both her husband and two sons. She was left with no one to care for her in a foreign land. Unfortunately, these bitter conditions turned Naomi bitter. Ruth 1:20 She said to them, “Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara (which had come to mean bitter), for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. I went away full, and the Lord has brought me back empty. This weekend we would like to explore how to guard our hearts from bitterness even through bitter circumstances, or to melt any bitterness that we hold in our heart.

Key Verse

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

(Eph. 4:32)

Guest Speakers

Debbie Doyle

I have been married to Brian for 40 years, we have 5 children and 5 grand children. I came to a saving knowledge of Christ in 1992 through a friend and thought all Christians were biblical counselors. I studied and earned a master in biblical counseling and became the team leader for H2H a Biblical Counseling Ministry at FBC established in 2008.

Beth Wallace

I grew up on a dairy farm, in a Christian home, the eighth child in a family of ten. I moved to Arnprior after college to work for my brother and this is where I met my husband. We have four children and will be celebrating our 40th anniversary this September. Studying Stephen Vairs’ book Overcoming Bitterness... with Debbie birthed in me a desire to share what I was learning with others.

Worship

Worship

During Chapel times, enjoy worshipping God together in songs led by our worship team.

Gourmet Chefs

Our Gourmet Chefs who graciously prepare and serve scrumptious eats and treats will be back again with delicious meals for us to enjoy.

Jabez Blankets

We will have an update from a Jabez Blankets Ministry representative Saturday afternoon. After which she will be presented with any backpacks we have filled and brought to the retreat.
